

Please leave satellite radio alone. Let fair competition decide what media survives NOT artificial boundaries developed by the federal government.